Email 1:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
• Malicious	• The email tried to determine the product quality as worst and tried to defame the product . • Is making a suspicion in the mind of the other person to not to buy products like this.

Email 2:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
• Malicious	• Use of words like "Customers Support" is suspicious as the word is "Customer Support". • The language so used is quite Unprofessional.

Email 3:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
• Malicious	• Clear case of Phishing where Facebook is not written properly. • A different login.htm page provided as to get trapped .

Email 4:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
• Safe	• The language seems to be professional . • The mail tries to describe the features of the product . • The images are of the product of the same company . • The mail doesn't tries to compell the reader to take any step accordingly. • No suspicious links available . • Business mail and with genuine mail id.

Email 5:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
• Malicious	• The mail is asking for authentication permission without any genuine proof of being authentic. • Seems to be unprofessional regarding to a government official.

Email 6:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
• Safe	• Genuine username and display name. • The language so used is professional and systematic.

Email 7:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
• Malicious	• The link on the mail is not https:// • The format extension at the end is .php making it more suspicious. • The name the email uses isn't consistent with the display name